GUIDELINES

Use the following three (3) pages to submit your applicant profile (sections A-E), using a font no smaller than 11pt and per the guidelines. Your applicant profile may not exceed THREE pages, so please do not insert additional pages. There are no section restrictions, so applicants may choose what they wish to emphasize.

A. Personal Contribution to the Proposed Project

Briefly describe how and why you are able to contribute to this project. Relevant factors may include aspects of your training; your previous and/or current work or experience in this area or related areas.

B. Positions

List the positions and academic roles you have held and currently hold that are relevant to this application. These positions need not be limited to salaried employment. List positions in chronological order, with the most recent first.

C. Awards and Honors

List any relevant professional achievements including travel awards (junior applicants only), poster awards from major learned societies (junior applicants only), honorific awards, and other expressions of esteem. The listing should be in chronological order, with the most recent first.

D. Scientific Contributions

Briefly describe your most significant contributions to knowledge creation and/or sharing (maximum of 4).

E. Publications

Provide the title, full list of authors and journal publication details of up to five publications relevant to the research project (papers in pre-print open access archives can be included). If available, please provide a link to an open access publication list of all your papers.
